Our mission states: Create and present vital, surprising performance experiences that engage and reward our community.

The role of the Board of Directors and Executive Director in delivering on our ambitious mission is to ensure you get that promised reward through good governance, sustainability and vitality within the OYR organization. We are energized and enthused by the trust that patrons, funders and community leaders have put in our organization; that trust has translated into donations, awards, critical acclaim and financial stability.

Welcome to the 2014 High Performance Rodeo! Be prepared to have your soul tattooed by the remarkable performances in this year's lineup of boundary-pushing art experiences.

At OYR we live and breathe the art we create and the culture we are able to share with our Calgary audiences.

We'd like to continue building strong community, one relationship at a time. If you see any one of us – and we'll be wearing our snazzy OYR pins – please let us know how we're doing. Let's have a conversation. A good place to find us during HPR is in the Laycraft Lounge aka the rodeo bar.

Six months ago we were in the thick of the devastation of this summer's floods. It was a trying time. Now that we are beginning to lift our heads from the work of recovery, we hope that our HPR offerings remind us all that we have much to value in our great city.

We're proud to be a part of contributing to Calgary's evolving cultural experience.

To all of our partners, sponsors, collaborators, artists, and patrons – Thank you. You rock because you make this city more diverse and a better place to live.

We send a heartfelt thanks to all of our volunteers and Team Rodeo. You rock because of your commitment, courage, energy and integrity in rolling out this fabulous festival.

So come one and all. Marvel, revel, laugh and cry – at the 28th annual High Performance Rodeo.

Erin O'Connor,
Executive Director, One Yellow Rabbit

Chris Ollenberger,
Board Chair, One Yellow Rabbit

MESSAGE FROM THE HIGH PERFORMANCE RODEO CURATOR & PRODUCER

Count 'em – Twenty Eight Years of edgy, bold, original entertainment.

And we are still high in the saddle, to aptly use a Calgary metaphor. After all, isn't the High Performance Rodeo, in its own way, a metaphor for this city and its evolution?

This festival belongs to Calgary. We built it and while doing so we built a crazy constructive collaborative spirit that just keeps morphing into newly weird and wonderful digressions – always embracing the evolving essence of Calgary.

Tangible examples of our home support are the fabulous relationships we have with so many of Calgary's major organizations, without whom we would literally cease to operate. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you, pardners!

With your help, the High Performance Rodeo has become the standard bearer of what a full-on community-based international-in-scope festival looks like. Imitation is the best praise and we are indeed proud to have inspired other similar cultural festivals across Canada.

This year's line up is stellar. We've got your favourites and some brand spanking new 'experiences' to delight you and provoke you.

It's clear to us that January is not the month for tropical winter vacation. It's Staycation Month in Calgary! Join us and help create the heat that makes this traditionally cold dark month, the hottest, brightest of the year.

Ann Connors

January 14 Preview Performance @ 8:00pm*

January 15 - 25 @ 8:00 pm

Big Secret Theatre

From $38 • 65 minutes (no intermission)

oyr.org

Always pushing the boundaries. Calgary's favourite theatre ensemble premieres their latest creation.

In true Rabbit style, Munich Now is a scathing examination of media absurdity.

In the television studio of a weekly German talk show, a hard-hitting journalist knocks heads with a testy celebrity chef while interviewing their special guest - a lapsed pop star on a book tour. Munich Now is the second installment in One Yellow Rabbit's Tangled Tongue Trilogy.

From the internationally recognized ensemble that brought you Kawasaki Exit and Gilgamesh La-Z-Boy. This show is a must for OYR fans and anyone who loves to romp in the absurd.

*Tickets for the Preview performance on January 14, @ 8:00pm, will be available exclusively at the door of the theatre two hours prior to show time. All tickets for this special performance are $10.

YOUNG DRUNK PUNK

Presented by
One Yellow Rabbit

YOUNG DRUNK PUNK

Written and performed by Bruce McCulloch
Directed by Blake Brooker

January 16 - 18 @ 8:00 pm
Martha Cohen Theatre
From $32
70 minutes (no intermission)

The return of Calgary's original young drunk punk.

Comedian, writer, director and legendary Kid in the Hall Bruce McCulloch combines stand-up, live music and assorted autobiographical insights in Young Drunk Punk.

Bruce's new solo show chronicles his journey from wild early days as a 'young punk' in 80s Alberta, to his flannel plaid days and futon nights in 90s Toronto, to becoming a
'pajama-clad dad' living in the Hollywood Hills.

Peppered with moments of surprising poignancy, this evening of comedy proves that although this infamous Kid may be all grown up, his singular brand of humour and signature wit remain firmly intact.

You loved the Kids in the Hall. You'll love this Kid, super-charged on the wisdom of age.

Live closer to inspired

When you're neighbours with great art, you get better ideas. East Village has inspired work by the internationally-acclaimed Julian Opie, a brilliant million-piece mosaic by local hero Ron Moppett and highly stimulating sculpture by Calgary's Light & Soul on RiverWalk™. The National Music Centre will be a live entertainment hub, a new Central Library will bring community together, and St. Patrick's Island will be your breath of fresh air. They're all coming.

And downtown. It's right there. You can see it. You can walk to it – and then you can walk home to your new condo, built by Embassy Bosa or FRAM+Slokker, two of the country's best developers of mixed-use residential properties. Come to the EV Sales and Experience Centre (553 Riverfront Ave. SE) and get inspired about a new way to live downtown.

So much. So close. So ready for you. evexperience.com

SUPER NIGHT SHOT

January 22 @ 7:30 pm

Royal Canadian Legion #1

$38 • 60 minutes

An adventure through the nighttime streets of Calgary.

Super Night Shot is theatre-film that begins when four performers/activists meet armed with video cameras. The four simultaneously set off into the night, letting their cameras roll. Only one thing is certain: 60 minutes later they will meet again to present their video creation to the waiting audience.

Super Night Shot attempts to reframe the banality of everyday life into the glamour and glitz of a blockbuster movie. This unpredictable show elevates the everyday into the epic and plays with comfortable perceptions of the familiar.

Anything can happen, and usually does.

GOB SQUAD'S KITCHEN (YOU'VE NEVER HAD IT SO GOOD)

January 24 – 26 @ 7:30 pm

Royal Canadian Legion #1

$38 • 1 hour 40 minutes

It's 1965 and everything is just about to happen.

Pop, subculture, superstars, feminism, drugs, bright lights and sex are about to rock the world like never before. Gob Squad takes the hand of the King Of Pop himself, Andy Warhol, to go back to the underground cinemas of New York City, back to where it all began.

Gob Squad takes one of Warhol's films, Kitchen, as the starting point for its quest for the original, the authentic, the here and now, the real me, the real you, the hidden depths beneath the shiny surfaces of modern life.

Gob Squad's Kitchen (You've Never Had It So Good) won the 2012 Drama Desk Award for Unique Theatrical Experience.

Be prepared to seize this sublimely Warholian moment.

Engineered Air Theatre

Have another samosa, and try not to take sides in this very Canadian story of love and marriage.

Real-life mother and son, Asha and Ravi Jain (an award winning actor, director, producer and educator), share the stage to candidly tell this true – and very Canadian – story of intergenerational culture clash.

While Ravi plans his adventures in India, his parents scheme to arrange his marriage to a nice Indian girl. Ravi, a typically Canadian young man, is not impressed. But, Asha fears that time is running out.

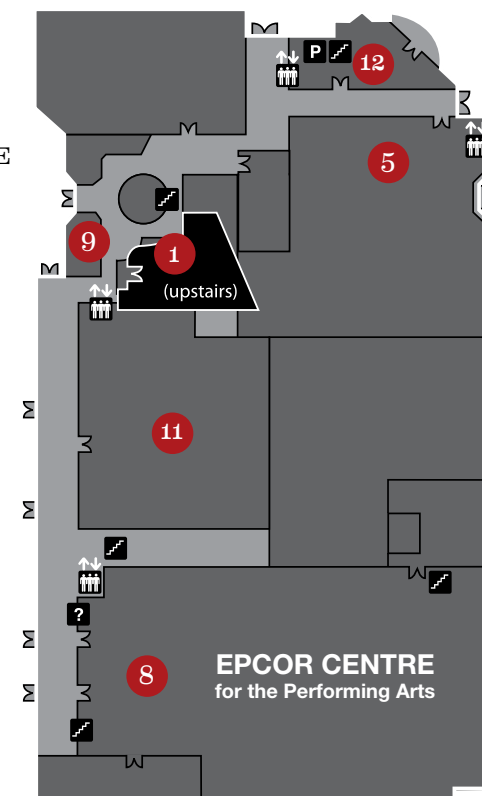

Be sure to catch this delightful and surprising, true-life story. It will make you wonder where your own sympathies lie.

AGOKWE

Created and performed by Waawaate Fobister
Director and dramaturge Ed Roy

January 30 - February 1 @ 7:30 pm

Engineered Air Theatre

$35 • 75 minutes (no intermission)

The long overdue Calgary premiere of a first nations tour de force

Agokwe explores unrequited love between teenaged boys from neighbouring reserves. Mike, a hockey player; and Jake, a dancer, notice each other at the Kenora Shoppers Mall. They ultimately connect through a mutual love of movement – Mike skates and Jake dances “like grass blowing in the wind.”

Ojibwa playwright/performer Waawaate Fobister delivers a multi-award-winning tour de force playing these and other characters through the iconic multifarious persona of Nanabush The Trickster.

Don't miss this remarkable testament to the joys and tragedies of growing up marginalized by race and sexuality in a small rural community.

Purchase your tickets for Agokwe and Club Carousel: A Cabaret Celebration of Calgary's Gay History together and receive both shows for $50. Available only by phone or in person at the EPCOR CENTRE Box Office.

Inspector Clouseau meets Sherlock Holmes – A hilarious detective romp!

London, 1896. Barnaby Gibbs is an incurable optimist, Sherlock Holmes fan, and convinced that he is not particularly good at anything.

One night while checking on a friend's empty house, he encounters a stranger dressed entirely in black holding a bag full of stolen belongings and attempting to write a poem about sapphires. The stranger explains he is the famous detective Antoine Feval – and a new crime-fighting duo is born.

British-born comedian Chris Gibbs interrupts his extensive touring as a stand-up comedian and improviser, his award winning writing career and his gigs at comedy festivals and in films to bust our guts at the High Performance Rodeo.

Show him some love.

LUNCHBOX THEATRE

Professional ice-dancing is a dog-eat-dog world of camp and competition – especially without ice.

It's been five years since Slovakian world champions Heap Cruziack and Pebble Adverati last laced up their skates and competed in the highly charged world of professional ice-dancing. And now in this post-apocalyptic world without ice, Heap & Pebble gamble everything in a graceful, physically astonishing demonstration of courage, optimism and comedy.

This is one glorious and hilarious Stirling Theatre Award-winning comeback triumph you simply won't want to miss.

An original and exclusive opportunity.

Part theatre, part museum gallery piece, Of Fighting Age is a performance mash-up of modern theatrics and vintage WWII technologies. Of Fighting Age explores our grandparents' war stories and how they've shaped, and perhaps skewed, our understanding of Canada's pursuit of modern warfare.

Join us. Straddle the line between spectator and collaborator as Verb Theatre and the Glenbow Museum battle these scrappy questions.

Tona Ohama

Calgary Tower, Stephen Avenue Walk

Tower – Trees: two pieces, intertwined yet independent.

Tower-Trees comprises two haunting compositions that form a soundscape of Calgary's downtown.

Tower, performed on the Calgary Tower's carillon, blends into downtown reflecting the ebb and flow of traffic and the constant shuffle of distant C-trains.

Tower mixes with Trees, which is playing randomly at the Trees Sculpture location outside of Bankers Hall.

Trees' soothing electronic ambient music follows the arc and swirl of the Tree Sculpture and echoes the wind patterns and waves of pedestrians that stream through the giant valleys of the downtown core.

ENBRIDGE playRites Festival of New Canadian Plays MARCH 5 - APRIL 6, 2014

MAR. 7 - APR. 5

"...one of Canada's originals, known not only for the quality of her work, but for the sheer range of her career." – Maclean's Magazine

In our rapidly changing world the unknown can be frightening, especially when you're a parent. Marion and Dan are terrified of losing their teenage son Zach to the world of online gaming. Are their fears real or is he just being a teenager?

The lines blur between reality and virtual reality in this powerful and inventive new drama by one of Canada's great playwrights, Linda Griffiths.

By the author of Age of Arousal (Enbridge playRites Festival of New Canadian Plays, 2007) which delighted audiences across the country, the US and the UK.

Parental guidance is advised.

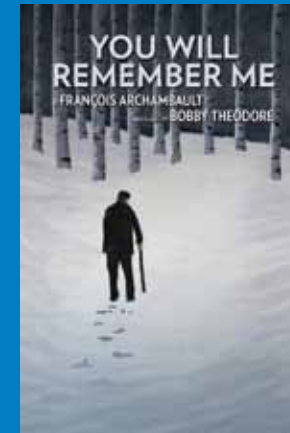

MAR. 6 - APR. 5

*There's a hero hiding inside all of us.
What will it take to unlock your potential?*

Legend has it there is a hero out there who will courageously take on a quest to right evil wrongs and save the inhabitants of a vulnerable world. Could it be you? Rebecca Northan, the improvisational genius behind the international success Blind Date, and her merry band of master improvisers invite one audience member on stage to be the hero in a fantastic tale that will take you on a new quest with every performance! Great fun for the whole family.

An adventure in storytelling by innovator Rebecca Northan, featuring Mark Meer of computer game Mass Effect.

Participation is voluntary. Fun for the whole family!

MAR. 5 - APR. 6

A new play by Governor General's award-winning playwright François Archambault.

How will you be remembered? How will you remember those you love?

This eloquent drama about family and memory is a deeply personal and moving new play from one of Québec's most dynamic voices.

When the aging patriarch of a modern family, a powerfully intellectual and political force in his community, suffers from dementia, the people who love him struggle to care for him.

Will they be able to hold on to the ties that bind them?

MAR. 18 - APR. 6

Lights, cameras, Bollywood!

How do you keep it real in an increasingly plastic age? Shake, shimmer and sing - that's how. Same Same But Different explores the complex personal journeys of those dreaming of stardom in the Bollywood cinema.

Blending fabulous music and stylish choreography, this genre-busting production brings a vibrant and vivid style of storytelling to the stage.

Award winning actress and dancer Anita Majumdar is featured in the films of Deepa Mehta including Salman Rushdie's Midnight's Children.
