ARTISTIC DIRECTOR'S NOTE REIMAGINE | REVEAL | REFLECT

'Friendship is the only cement that will ever hold the world together'

- Woodrow Wilson

For this, the 7th year of the Fluid Festival, we salute festival friendship – old friends and new ones that help make the festival great.

Thanks to our old friends that come back to the Fluid Festival every year. And a heartfelt welcome to new friends curious to join a creative exchange where we strive to surprise and awaken the best of ourselves through remarkable performances from around the world and around the block.

We celebrate our new friends at Vertigo Theatre's Y Stage who have joined us in presenting the phenomenal BBoyizm; and our old friend and Canadian icon, Crystal Pite, who performed at one of the first Fluid Festivals and joins us again with her astounding company Kidd Pivot. We reinvigorate our old friendship with Decidedly Jazz Danceworks, who joins us in our containR carnival to consider all things metal and miraculous. We embrace new friends, like Circle Eleven, coming from across the Atlantic in their world tour of LEO, and helping us to see our world turned on end. We continue joining forces with co-presenting partner Theatre Junction with a shared passion for contemporary performance.

To all our containR friends – participating artists, festivals, and companies, sponsors and friends at the City, we thank you for opening up to art in all of its audacity. Much thanks for joining us in our containR sandbox.

Thank you friends! And welcome to the party. After all, what is a party without friends?

Celebrate art and creative ideas.

Embrace connectedness and all things physical.

Yours in dance,

Nicole Mion

about Springboard Performance

Springboard Performance is a Calgary-based, non-profit organization devoted to connecting artists, mediums, audiences, the body and the mind through physical contemporary creation. Springboard enriches and nourishes contemporary physical practices, removing boundaries between genres with clustered festival programming, creative residencies, workshops, discussions, performances, and happenings. Springboard Performance has over 25 years of producing and presenting physical contemporary creation for stage and screen and continues to inspire and connect artists and audiences by deepening understanding of art and ideas with new ways of seeing and responding to contemporary life. Under the artistic direction of Nicole Mion, Springboard presents: The Fluid Movement Arts Festival; the Interrarium Creation residency and performance series at the Banff Centre for the Arts; and the creation and dissemination of work by Artistic Director Nicole Mion, exploring new modes of interdisciplinary performance for stage and screen.

about the Fluid Festival

The Fluid Movement Arts Festival's vision is to create a celebration of movement arts that engages audiences, artists and merges genres. The festival creates opportunities for emerging artists, furthers the careers of mid-career dancers and choreographers, and provides audiences an intimate opportunity to experience live performance of renowned acts from around the globe. The festival engages the Calgary community in art and ideas through performances, workshops and artist talks. It is the only festival of this scope between Toronto and Vancouver. Springboard Performance produces the Fluid Movement Arts Festival.

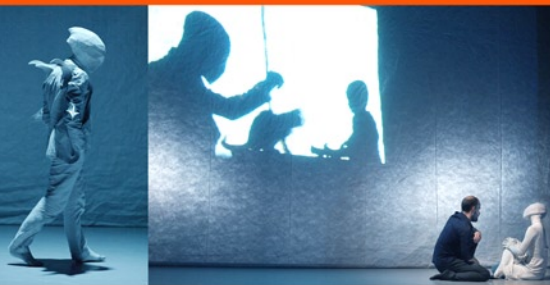

KIDD PIVOT

Vancouver | Frankfurt

The Tempest Replica

In her new dance piece based on motifs from Shakespeare's The Tempest, award winning Canadian choreographer Crystal Pite stages a game of revenge and forgiveness; reality and imagination. A theatrical sensibility complements the mastery of the dancers – their fluidity heightening the dramatic articulation of the plot. Swathed in white light, shadows abounding, with music composed by longtime collaborator Owen Belton and a film montage by Jamie Nesbitt, Pite's latest work is a startling innovation.

CIRCLE OF ELEVEN

Berlin

LEO

Experience Circle of Eleven's LEO, a mind-bending and witty one-man show of acrobatic physical theatre that defies the laws of gravity. The performance by Julian Schulz is a funny, surreal and surprisingly touching work that challenges the senses and tests perceptions of reality. LEO won the Best of Edinburgh Award at this year's Edinburgh Festival Fringe.

BBOYZIM Ottawa

IZIM

Canada's only nationally touring street dance company pushes through age, race and gender reaching below the surface where emotions live. Choreographer-dancer and founder Crazy Smooth, brings together ten of Canada's most extraordinary dancers to perform this challenging piece with incredible energy and masterful movement to evoke the essential nature of pure street dance. IZIM embodies this Canadian company's vision to "... create honest poetry and "truly expressing oneself." It's young. It's bold. It's thrilling.

"The show is an engaging and intelligent journey of spirit, of dance and of life. I'm a fan."

- Tedd Robinson, Artistic Director, 10 Gates Dancing Inc.

PHYSICAL THEATRE CABARET

A ROMP, RIDDLE AND RIDE IN TO THE RIOTOUSLY, RIDICULOUS

It's time for the Physical Theatre Cabaret! Every year the Fluid Festival likes to pull up a chair in our favourite bar where Calgary artists get whimsical and irreverent. This is a not-to-be-missed night of ribald entertainment that you can't prepare for – including indigenous hoop dancing, a monologue on black boots, reflections on statuing and a pot and pan tap dance. Expect the unexpected.

URBAN CULTURE CABARET

URBAN DANCE, MUSIC, SPOKEN WORD AND VISUAL ART COLLIDE

The Urban Culture Cabaret expresses the voice of a new generation of artists who juxtapose urban youth culture with identity in entirely innovative and unexpected ways. Artists remix, mash-up and juxtapose the old with the new as a means to rediscover, reimagine and reinterpret Calgary's urban thumbprint and to create surprising new cultural hybrids that reflect the changing world today – here and now.

WAY WEST

EXPANSIVE PERSPECTIVES: ART AND PERFORMANCE IN THE WEST FOR THE WEST

Tania Alvarado | Naomi Brand | Shay Kuebler

Some of western Canada's most accomplished choreographers and dancers appear in Way West. Come see what these seasoned artists bring to the stage this year:

Shay Kuebler | Vancouver

Computer Stare (excerpt from KAROSHI)

Computer Stare is an excerpted solo from the full-length production KAROSHI. Through the dynamic of a man and his computer, the section looks at how "karoshi" is a breaking point, a collapse of the mental and physical state. It also speaks to how formatting and societal pressures can cause one to lose focus of self and personal need.

Cabinet

Cabinet is a work that looks at how one formats and places a structure over itself in attempts to blend, conform and relate. It also references the tendency for people to categorize or denote what they experience to more readily access, secure or protect their own thoughts and ideas. In this work specifically, we look at how man is pulled off his direct path from an outside force, and how outside influence can begin to alter one's own direction and perspective.

Naomi Brand | Calgary

Seed to Cede

Seed to Cede is an intimate dance portrait choreographed and performed by Naomi Brand. The work illustrates the process of spilling oneself open and sowing seeds in a new landscape. Using a movement language that is both purposeful and poetic, the dance converts the stage into a canvas and imprints itself on the space.

Tania Alvarado | Edmonton | Calgary

Entrances and Exits

The act of entering a space depends upon the act of leaving another space. Alvarado is interested in the moment where one's presence lingers behind and how crossing the threshold transforms a new space. The central concept is focused on each performer's personal experience of leaving, being left and arriving somewhere new. Beyond the metaphorical, Alvarado searches the concrete themes and realities of her subject, such as exile, migration, and adaptation.

Alvarado's work is presented in partnership with the Prairie Dance Circuit.

CONTAINR IS BIG METAL

containR

"containR turns bleak space into public meeting place"

- Kevin Griffin, Vancouver Sun

"As a public art piece, the structure speaks volumes..."

- Dwell Magazine

A kaleidoscope of theatre, cinema, dance and performing arts travelling in a nomadic gallery caravan camped out on Downtown Calgary's Stephen Avenue Walk.

containR has arrived.

Do you dare to miss it?

Fluid Festival redefines the concept of shipping containers — a standardized industrial construction that connects countries and continents, linking ideas, trade and people around the globe.

At the Fluid Festival, the recycled containers become containR, connecting communities through art. containR sits at the crossroads of urban culture and contemporary creation, embracing public art and sustainable design. Using green design, industrial utility metamorphoses into performance space offering a continuously transforming rotation of art in our city.

After its successful launch at the Vancouver Winter Olympics — where 25,000 people took in the performances — containR traverses the mountains to Stephen Avenue Walk, within walking distance of our festival theatres.

We're launching containR Calgary with a fall fête during Culture Days, September 28-30. Over the following four weeks the Fluid Festival and our friends and partners are presenting more than 100 free and ticketed events from around the world and around the block on the containR site.

Take the plunge. Be Calgary. Experience containR — during lunch, after work or in the evening.

Expect the unexpected at the Fluid Festival.

Presented and facilitated by Springboard Performance.

UNLIKELY PLACES. UNEXPECTED SPACES.

JOIN THE CURRENT. TOGETHER WE CAN MAKE A RIVER.

At Springboard Performance and the Fluid Movement Arts Festival, we celebrate our funders and sponsors. We know we could not continue to present and create thought-provoking work without the dedication of people like you. Your generous commitment allows Springboard and the Fluid Festival to present many remarkable artists – some just starting out and others in full mature voice. We are grateful.

Financial contributions help not just with creating excellent and boundary-breaking new work. They also help pay for artists from around the world to travel to Calgary so we can gain new perspectives about the world through their work.

We couldn't create the art or sustain our cultural community without you. By supporting Springboard Performance, The Fluid Festival, our artists and in turn, our vibrant community, you help Calgary shine as a cultural and creative leader – at home, in Canada and around the world.

Your involvement places you in the centre of this "sweet spot" of creative, intellectual, artistic and economic exchange. And that's a thrilling place to be.

Consider supporting Springboard and the Fluid Movement Arts Festival.
